Five Candidates Vie for Three North Metro Fire Board Positions

Absentee ballots now available; Election to be held on May 3

Northglenn/Broomfield, CO – Five candidates are running this spring to fill three board of director positions for North Metro Fire Rescue District.

The candidates running to fill the three board positions are:

- Fredrick Rye Nason of Broomfield
- Jenni M. Murphy of Northglenn
- Tim Long of Northglenn
- John M. Abboud of Broomfield
- Jon R. Rob Shively of Broomfield

The election will be held on May 3, 2016, and all elected board members will serve the District at large for a 4-year term. Board members are responsible for overseeing North Metro Fire's annual budget and guiding District policies. The board usually meets the third Tuesday of every month at 5 p.m., with a few additional meetings held during the year for specific purposes.

Voting information

For those wishing to vote by absentee ballot, applications are currently available to be picked up Monday through Friday from 8:30 a.m. until 4:30 p.m. at North Metro Headquarters located at 101 Spader Way, Broomfield, Colorado 80020. Absentee ballots will be mailed to applicants on April 4 or within 72 hours of receipt of the application. If requesting an absentee ballot by mail, applications must be received at the Headquarters location in Broomfield by the close of business on April 29. Absentee ballot voters must have their ballots in to North Metro Headquarters by 7p.m. on May 3.

In lieu of absentee voting, all residents may choose to vote in person on the day of the election by going to a voting location on May 3 from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. to cast their vote.
